Mobile Meals, Inc. of Charlotte, Michigan

517-541-5909

Mobile Meals is a service to those who qualify to receive one or two nutritious meals delivered to their home four to seven days a week within the city limits of Charlotte.

Governed by Mobile Meals, Inc. of Charlotte in cooperation with General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) – Charlotte and University of Michigan Health-Sparrow Eaton. Subsidized in part by United Way of South Central Michigan designated donations.

General information

- The program was initiated by GFWC-Charlotte and is a non-profit corporation administrated by an elected board of directors.
- Meals are prepared at UM Health-Sparrow Eaton. Special diets can be accommodated.
- All meals are delivered between 11:30 am. and 1 p.m. by community volunteers.
- The noon meal typically includes cooked meat, poultry or fish; potato or substitute; vegetable; salad; bread and butter; milk and dessert.
- The supper meal, which is delivered with the noon meal, includes a cold sandwich, salad, dessert, and milk.

Qualifications

Participants are enrolled according to need:

- Based on doctor recommendation (e.g., earlier release from the hospital).
- Require a special diet, such as diabetic, low-fat, low-sodium, low-cholesterol, etc.
- Are physically or mentally disabled, homebound, or in recovery.
- Must live in the city of Charlotte, MI.

A waiting list is maintained when necessary and applicants are accepted in order of need. Contact 517-541-5909 for more information.
